A holiday greeting project supporting the Cancer Wellness Foundation of Central Alabama

Give a lasting gift of a limited edition print from an original work of art. Proceeds from each $20 art greeting purchased benefit Central Alabama cancer patients in need.

How do you give a gift, send a greeting and help others all at the same time?...with a Holiday Hope Art Greeting.

Holiday Hope is a holiday gift greeting program showcasing local artistic talent to benefit the Cancer Wellness Foundation of Central Alabama. Each year, a different original work of art is offered as a limited edition print. Prints are beautifully packaged and carefully shipped to recipients on your list for a modest donation of $20 each. You may also choose to pick and deliver art greetings yourself for $15 each.

Proceeds allow the Wellness Foundation to continue out mission of assisting local cancer patients with transportation to and from treatment, prescription medications, and much-needed social services.

The Cancer Wellness Foundation is a non-profit 501c3 organization.

Montgomery artist Craig Greene:

“I received a Bachelor of Art from Auburn University at Montgomery and show and sell my work professionally. My work is included in many private and corporate collections. I have over the years painted with and learned from well known Montgomery artists including John Wagnon and Clark Walker.”

Craig’s work is featured locally at these galleries: Stonehenge Gallery, The Charleston House and B. Barganier Interiors.

Commentary on Craig’s work: "Craig's paintings are compositions with impeccable balance and movement. Colors leap from his soul onto the canvas with mutable depictions of the human figure. His work reveals a beautiful display of unbridled energy which is entirely personal and concentered by conceptual thinking. The indiscriminate use of form, texture and color create a style that is fully his own."

Each greeting is beautifully packaged and contains your own message.

And the best part?...we can handle all of the mailing and details for you!

In the warm spirit of the holiday season,
a gift has been made to the Cancer Wellness Foundation of Central Alabama in your honor

Best Wishes!
Joe and Jenny
